Retaliation

This week, Pastor Steve Shelby preached from Matthew 5:38-42

<sup>38</sup>“You have heard that it was said, ‘An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.’ <sup>39</sup>But I say to you, Do not resist the one who is evil. But if anyone slaps you on the right cheek, turn to him the other also. <sup>40</sup>And if anyone would sue you and take your tunic, let him have your cloak as well. <sup>41</sup>And if anyone forces you to go one mile, go with him two miles. <sup>42</sup>Give to the one who begs from you, and do not refuse the one who would borrow from you.

- Why can the idea of retaliation be so attractive?
- Jesus quotes Exodus 21:24, where Old Testament Law informs Israel’s judges to recognize the sanctity and worth of life in administering justice. However, Jesus forbids “an eye for an eye” in personal relationships within the community. Why? What does Jesus know tempts us as individuals?
- Jesus is teaching non-retaliation. Why? What is the reason you would turn the other cheek or go the extra mile?
- Jesus introduces us to four challenging people:
  - One who seeks to insult or injure us (39)
  - One who takes us to court (40)
  - One who forces us into service (41)
  - One who begs or borrows (42)In each of these cases, Jesus tells us to forgo revenge or repayment. Why?
- How do you personally react to Jesus teaching? Why?
- What was Jesus’ intent in saying, “do not resist the one who is evil”? (39)
- It is remarkable that the One teaching set aside revenge and repayment to pay for our sin. Read 1 Peter 2:18-24 to connect the suffering of Christ with our salvation and our discipleship. Can you share one way the Gospel freed you to not retaliate, forgive others, or love your enemy?
- Pray together in light of this week’s passage.
